An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this amendment was given in a telephone interview with Timothy Ford on March 3, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

-- This application is a Division of application serial number 10/024,509, filed December 21, 2001, now patent number 6,637,422. -- was inserted.

Claims 17-41 were canceled.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not disclose a ball launching device including a housing containing a ball propulsion mechanism, which propels a ball along a fixed axis; the housing having a first base portion, and a second base portion which is inclined relative to the first base portion; the housing capable of being supported on a ground surface on either the first base portion or second base portion, thereby allowing a user to select a position of the fixed axis to adjust the trajectory of a propelled ball.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
